(A) PERSONAL HISTORY AND BACKGROUND

According to the June 15, 1954 arrest record at the Milwaukee Police Department, FELIX ANTHONY ALDERISIO, was born on April 26, 1912 at Yonkers, New York. In 1935 he married one MOLLY, nee PRAPOPKE, in Miami Beach, Florida. The names of ALDERISIO's parents are DOMINIC, father, and PAULINE, mother, both residing in Yonkers, New York. At the time of this arrest ALDERISIO gave his address as 4736 West Adams Street, Chicago, and the address of 725 North 5th Street, Milwaukee. The Police Department file reflects that he has a 7th grade education and his occupation is that of manager of a restaurant, that he enlisted in the U. S. Army in 1940 and received an honorable discharge in 1943. He has no children of his own but has one adopted boy, approximately 9 years of age. b6 b7C

According to the Wisconsin State Income Tax returns the present address of ALDERISIO and his wife is 515 Long Common Road, Riverside, Illinois. However, inasmuch as ALDERISIO spends much of his time in Milwaukee, he resides above the restaurant on North 5th Street and this residence address is 717 North 5th Street. It is believed that at the present time he is driving a 1955 or 1956 Oldsmobile sedan with Illinois plates.

On December 17, 1957 [redacted] of the Confidential Squad of the Milwaukee Police Department advised that ALDERISIO was questioned on May 19, 1954 in connection with the gangland murder of one JOHN DI TRAPANI on March 18, 1954 in Milwaukee. DI TRAPANI was found shot to death in his Cadillac car and his murder remains unsolved. Upon being questioned by Inspector of Detectives [redacted] ALDERISIO stated that he opened a Bar B-Q restaurant on North 5th Street in 1939 but that at the present time the business belonged to his wife and that she was in partnership with one ROBERT BUNDY. He stated that he has no interest in the restaurant, that he gets no pay, and that his wife occasionally gives him some money as he needs it. He stated that he turned the business over to his wife when he went into the Army and that he left it in her name to the present time. He stated he had no business in Chicago, that he became acquainted with JOHN DI TRAPANI approximately eight or nine years ago but never had any business or social dealings with him. He admitted knowing one FRANK LA GALBO, owner and operator of Chico's Restaurant at 1800 North Farwell Avenue, Milwaukee. He refused to answer questions pertaining to his gambling activities in Las Vegas, Nevada, but admitted being picked up and released on numerous occasions by the Chicago Police Department. He admitted being placed on probation for possession of illegal alcohol and denied any criminal activities of any kind. He denied knowing RUSSIAN LOUIE. He denied that he carries a gun, that he had one on his person or in his car.

The arrest records at the Milwaukee Police Department contain no additional information on subject ALDERISIO other than that shown above.

In connection with the arrest by the Milwaukee Police Department on May 19, 1955 it is to be noted that he was questioned at this time regarding any knowledge he may have had concerning the gangland murder of JOHN DI TRAPANI.

Regarding the arrest of ALDERISIO on December 28, 1954, the files of the Milwaukee Police Department reflect that on that evening ALDERISIO was observed by members of the Milwaukee Police Department at the boxing bouts at the Milwaukee Arena. He was taken to police headquarters for questioning and booked on suspicion of vagrancy. As he was being taken into the squad car a local character named FRANK SANSONE interceded for him. FRANK SANSONE is a convicted pimp and has served time in the Federal Penitentiary for White Slave Traffic Act violation. Following his arrest FRANK BALISTERIERI came to the police station in an effort to post bond for him. Also [redacted] came to the police station [redacted] is a well known Milwaukee gambler and petty hoodlum. Later in the night [redacted] contacted the Chief of Police in efforts to "spring" ALDERISIO. However, he was detained until the following morning. When he was arrested ALDERISIO had in his possession $764.00. He was unable to give any explanation for this money except to say that it belonged to him. The Police Department requested a vagrancy warrant against ALDERISIO but it was refused. At the office of the District Attorney, while the warrant was being requested by the Milwaukee police officers, there appeared attorney ROBERT CURLEY, who represented ALDERISIO. It is to be noted that ROBERT CURLEY is the son of MICHAEL CURLEY. MICHAEL CURLEY presently is a retired member of the Milwaukee Police Department and is attached to the investigating staff of the District Attorney's office. Officers of the Milwaukee Police Department observed that prior to the time that the warrant was issued MICHAEL CURLEY had a short conference with District Attorney WILLIAM J. MC CAULEY.

He stated that these arrests and questionings do not appear on the identification record furnished by the FBI. [redacted] advised that questioning by the above authorities may produce some information on ALDERISIO and his operations.

2. Out of Town Associates

In the case entitled "TONY ACCARDO, wa, ANTI-RACKETEERING," the Chicago Office advised on December 30, 1957 that on the 4th of July of every year TONY ACCARDO throws a large lawn and barbeque party at his large mansion and estate at 915 Franklin Place, River Forest, Illinois. This party is attended by his close criminal associates. At the parties of 1954, 1955 and 1956 Illinois license numbers were taken by members of the Chicago Police Department. On each year above mentioned a license listed to M. ALDERISIO of 4736 West Adams Street, Chicago, and 515 Long Common Road, Riverside, Illinois, was observed at this party. This would indicate that subject ALDERISIO attends the parties given by TONY ACCARDO and is close to him. TONY ACCARDO has a reputation of being the successor to AL CAPONE as leader of the Chicago syndicate.

On December 19, 1957 [redacted] Milwaukee Police Department, advised that inasmuch as ALDERISIO originates from Chicago he has numerous friends and associates from that area. In connection with his out of town associates, [redacted] made available a copy of a letter which he sent to [redacted] of the Beverly Hills, California Detective Bureau. This letter is being quoted verbatim inasmuch as it contains much information concerning subject ALDERISIO. The letter is as follows:

"Dear Sir:

"We are in receipt of your letter of January 17, 1955 requesting information relative to the background of a Phil Milno known as 'Milwaukee Phil' and an associate of Michael Caifano.

"The true name of 'Milwaukee Phil' is Felix Anthony Alderisio and he is unknown to us as Phil Milno, but we have him listed in our records under the following aliases: Felix Alderiso, Felix Alderise and Felix Andrise. He was born in Yonkers, New York, April 26, 1912; he is 5 ft. 9 in. tall, 176 lbs., medium build, dark complexion, dark brown hair, brown eyes, and has a bi-lobed chin. His parents were Dominic and Pauline Materise of Yonkers, New York; states he had no brothers; we believe he has two sisters whose names and addresses are unknown. He married Mollie Prapopke (phonetic) in Miami Beach, Florida, in 1935. He lives with her at 4736 W. Adams Street, Chicago, Illinois, and at times he stays at 717 N. Fifth Street in Milwaukee. He enlisted in the U. S. Army in 1940 and received an honorable discharge in 1943. This man is our B. of I. No. 67,183 and FBI #1,021,382.

"This man first came to our attention on June 20, 1946 at which time a beat Patrolman traveling in our downtown district observed him and a man named Robert Bundy, who operates the Taystee Bar-B-Q restaurant at 725 N. Fifth St., Bundy being our B. of I. No. 58,809, and FBI #150,106. Bundy, who has a record of arrests dating back go 1922 for armed robbery in Detroit and possession and transportation of liquor in Lansing, Michigan in 1928, and several traffic violations in our city, has as his business partner Alderisio's wife Mollie. Apparently Alderisio is the silent partner, but whenever questioned regarding this, he states that when he went into the Army in 1940, he put the business in his wife's name and that it has never been changed.

"On June 20, 1946 at 4:00 a.m., the Patrolman traveling the beat where the Taystee Bar-B-Q is located, observed Bundy and Alderisio loading 100-pound bags of sugar from the basement of the restaurant into a station wagon bearing Illinois license plates. The Officer's report indicates that the case was turned over to the Office of Price Administration.

"The next information that we have on this subject is a letter dated June 2, 1953 from Virgin W. Peterson, Operating Director "of the Chicago Crime Commission, 79 West Monroe Street, Chicago, Illinois. It reads as follows:

"'Mr. John W. Polcyn
Chief of Police
Safety Building
Milwaukee 3, Wisconsin

"'Dear Chief Polcyn:

"'I am enclosing herewith a copy of a letter I have written to Deputy Director H. G. Robinson, Department of Justice, Office of the Attorney General, State Building, San Francisco, California, dated June 2, 1953 relating to Russian Louie. You probably do not have any information regarding Russian Louie since he appears to be a west coast hoodlum. However, you will notice in the letter a reference to 'Milwaukee Phil' who alledgedly has operated hamburger stands in the vicinity of Milwaukee and is supposed to have connections with hoodlums in Chicago or on the west coast. I am very interested in identifying Russian Louie and if you have any information regarding him, I will be most pleased to receive it, also on Milwaukee Phil.

"'I thought that in view of the reference to Milwaukee Phil and his alledged origin in Milwaukee that the information contained in the enclosed letter would be helpful to you for your future reference.

"' I am grateful to you for your cooperation and want to assure you of our desire to be helpful to you whenever possible.

"'With kindest regards and best wishes.

"'Sincerely yours,

"'/s/ Virgil W. Peterson

"Mr. Peterson's letter of June 2, 1953 to Deputy Director H. G. Robinson, Department of Justice, Office of the Attorney General, State Building, San Francisco, California, is as follows:

"'Mr. H. G. Robinson, Deputy Director
Department of Justice
Office of the Attorney General

"' Re: Russian Louie

"'Dear Robbie:

"'I am very much interested in trying to ascertain the true identity of a hoodlum from the west coast known as Russian Louie. This individual is believed to have worked around San Francisco for some time and alledgedly is well known in the underworld on the west coast. He has had some connections also with Capone gangsters here in Chicago. A highly reliable source of information who has given me much information all of which has proven to be accurate, has constantly referred to Russian Louie. He does not know anything else about this individual. However, in talking with this source of information recently, he stated that it will not be necessary to worry about Russian Louie any longer since he has been 'bumped off'. He also advised that Russian Louie was believed to have been under deportation proceedings or some other Federal action at the time he was killed. It is possible that this killing may not have come to light since it is understood that his killers have buried him. My source of information advised that the individuals responsible for his murder were Marshall Caifano, a notorious gangster who is closely associated with Tony Accardo, head of the Capone gang in Chicago, and who is now spending much of his time in Las Vegas, a man known only as Milwaukee Phil, who is said to have some hamburger stands around Milwaukee and another individual known as 'Obie', a hoodlum from Chicago's near north side and associated with [redacted] another Tony Accardo lieutenant. I am extremely interested in trying to get Russian Louie identified and also to ascertain if he is presently missing. If I get any further information, I will send it on to you. As previously indicated, my source of information has been extremely accurate in the past with reference to Capone gang activities.

"'It is possible that if you do not have information concerning this individual, the Federal authorities in San Francisco or the San Francisco police may have something that might be of assistance.

"'Kindest regards and best wishes.

"Under date of June 11, 1953, we sent an answering letter to Mr. Peterson; it reads as follows:

"'Mr. Virgin W. Peterson
Operating Director

79 West Monroe Street
Chicago, Illinois

"'Dear Mr. Peterson:

"'In reference to your letter of June 2, 1953, pertaining to one 'Milwaukee Phil,' please be informed that an investigation has been made by this Department in reference to your inquiry with the following results:

Residence at the time of arrest in 1935 was given as 1025 South Western Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

"'This Department has also ascertained that he has been arrested in Detroit, Michigan and fingerprinted there, however, the charge in Detroit, Michigan, is unknown at this time. The FBI record does not show a record of arrest in Detroit, Michigan. Suggest you communicate with the Detroit Police Department for copy of fingerprints and additional information.

"'The subject is a silent partner of one Robert Bundy, operating the 'Tastie Bar-B-Q' at 725 North 5th Street, Milwaukee. Phillip Alderisio and Robert Bundy did have connecting apartments #12 and #15 at 717 North 5th Street in 1948. However, Alderisio usually stayed in Chicago and would come to Milwaukee and stay in the apartment on weekends. He has never been arrested by this Department. He has remained in the background while on his visits to Milwaukee at that time. He still visits Robert Bundy here from time to time.

"'According to our informant Alderisio is a member of the Capone gang and still resides in Chicago. Alderisio and Robert Bundy also "'are supposed to be operating a 'Tastie Bar-B-Q' restaurant in Chicago at the present time (address unknown). Our informer also stated that during the Winter of either 1946 or 1947 he has seen Phillip Alderisio sitting on the lawn of Al Capone's residence at Miami, Florida.

"On May 19, 1954 a statement was taken from Felix Alderisio in the Detective Bureau after he voluntarily appeared here after having heard that our Department was looking for him. This man was last arrested by our Department on December 28, 1954. At that time he was charged with Vagrancy and he gave the information that he is driving a 1953 Ford, bearing Illinois License 1105-106. This subject has been coming into our city intermittently for several years and when he was observed at a boxing match at our local Arena, the Special Assignment Squad made this previously mentioned arrest on December 28, 1954. He was released the next morning by one of our Assistant District Attorneys who refused to issue a warrant for Vagrancy, stating that there was no evidence to hold, inasmuch as Alderisio had the sum of $764.00 on his person at the time of his arrest.

[redacted] advised that on January 31, 1955 the Milwaukee Police Department received the following reply from Sgt. [redacted] of the Beverly Hills, California, Police Department:

"Thank you for your letter of January 26, 1955.

"On January 16, 1955 we arrested MARSHALL CAIFANO, Beverly Hills, Police Department #64956, for failure to register as a convicted felon. Investigation of CAIFANO's background revealed that he had met PHIL MILNO (Milwaukee Phil) at Beverly Wilshire Hotel in Beverly Hills, California on December 8, 1954.

b7C

"Upon interrogation CAIFANO stated he left Chicago two years ago and moved to Las Vegas, Nevada. He is now going under the name of JOHN J. MARSHAL. He stated he is vice president of Urvava Engineering Co. in Las Vegas, Nevada. CAIFANO also claimed to be in the construction business and erecting a housing project near the Colonial House. His close associates at this time on the west coast are [redacted] JOE SICCA and [redacted] A business card found on CAIFANO's person was that of one WILLIAM D. NESTROS, MD, 740 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois. A pencilled notation on the back of the card had telephone number Nevada 6-4504 (CLAUDE). At the time that CAIFANO registered at the Beverly Wilshire Hotel on December 8, 1954 he was accompanied by PHIL MILNO (FELIX ALDERISIO), 725 Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

"Very truly yours,

On May 14, 1954 T-1 advised SA RICHARD C. THOMPSON of the Milwaukee Office that FELIX ALDERISIO, who runs the Tasty Bar-B-Q shop on North 5th Street, had been in contact with one JOHN DI TRAPANI a week before the latter was found shot to death in his Cadillac automobile. Informant also said that he had heard that PHIL ALDERISIO had been with PAUL LABRIOLA one week before he had been killed and murdered gangland style in Chicago several months ago. T-1 advised that he is drawing the conclusion that ALDERISIO is a good suspect not only in the murder of JOHN DI TRAPANI in Milwaukee, but also in the murder of PAUL LABRIOLA in Chicago. However, he has no evidence on which to base his conclusions.

(D) CRIMINAL ACTIVITIES

According to the identification record ALDERISIO has had only one conviction. That was in 1935 for violation of Internal Revenue laws (possession of illegal alcohol). At that time he was placed on probation for one year. The record reflects that ALDERISIO has never been in prison or served any time.

On December 27, 1957 [redacted] advised that his department knew of no criminal activities in which ALDERISIO was engaged. He stated that it is a known fact that ALDERISIO "hangs around" with known Milwaukee hoodlums and gangsters but up to the present time they have been unable to connect him with any criminal activities for which they might arrest him. He stated that it is a known fact that ALDERISIO associates with known hoodlums from Chicago but that this association is primarily in the Chicago area, although on infrequent occasions they visit him or he brings them into the Milwaukee area.

On December 28, 1957 [redacted] advised that he has information that PHIL ALDERISIO has taken over the boxing sport in Milwaukee, that he has taken over local prostitution in Milwaukee, and that he has quite a bit to say about gambling activities in the Milwaukee area. Concerning the prostutional activities, [redacted] stated that he has received information that he permits girls to hand around his barbeque shop where they make pickups, and then the tricks are turned at an apartment house located at 1725 North Prospect Avenue. He stated that ALDERISIO maintains this apartment for the benefit of the girls and that there is a division of profits. He stated that ALDERISIO is very careful not to engage girls who come from out of the state and that he caters primarily to girls who have local Milwaukee background. He stated that the names of [redacted] [redacted] further advised that ALDERISIO is very likely involved in gambling activities in the Milwaukee area [redacted] informant has told him that ALDERISIO is known to carry a gun in a shoulder holster.

(E) LEGITIMATE ENTERPRISES

[redacted] advised on December 27, 1957 that from outward appearances ALDERISIO is not engaged in anything. However, his wife MOLLY has been the active partner in the operation of the Tasty Bar-B-Q shop, 725 North 5th Street. The other partner is ROBERT BUNDY. [redacted] advised that, undoubtedly, ALDERISIO is the motivating power and the "silent partner" in this operation and that the name of ALDERISIO does not appear as a member of the partnership for the purposes of evading responsibility and probably for tax evasion purposes.

On December 30, 1957 SA LAURENCE J. GIUNTOLI checked the Wisconsin State Income Tax returns at the Office of Assessor of Incomes, Room 202 Milwaukee County Court House. The records reflect that from 1952 through 1956 the partnership tax returns showed the business was operating at a loss. The partners always listed were ROBERT BUNDY, 717 North 5th Street, and MOLLY ALDERISIO, 4736 West Adams Street, Chicago, and 515 Long Common Road, Riverside, Illinois.

The following is a brief resume of the tax returns for the years indicated:

On December 27, 1957 [redacted] advised that their file on ALDERISIO contained the following memorandum dated November 8, 1955,

"Information received that ALDERISIO, who lives in Chicago, comes to Milwaukee several times a week and goes to the White Pub Tavern, 829 North 3rd Street, (now the Tradewinds restaurant and cocktail lounge) and there, in the presence of FRANK BALISTERIERI, he checks the cash register receipts.

ALDERISIO has hoodlum connections with the old CAPONE gang out of Chicago and it may be that syndicate money is invested in the White Pub restaurant, now The Tradewinds Cocktail Lounge."

(F) PLACES OF AMUSEMENT OR HANGOUNT FREQUENTED

According to [redacted] subject ALDERISIO stays close to his restaurant which is presently called The Hickory House, 725 North 5th Street, when he is in Milwaukee. It is further believed that he has a room above this restaurant where he resides. The address of this room is 717 North 5th Street. [redacted] advised, however, that on numerous occasions subject has been seen at the Belmont Hotel coffee shop, North 4th and West Wells Streets, which is the rendezvous, especially during the early morning hours, of numerous hoodlums, gamblers and underworld characters of the Milwaukee area. ALDERISIO has also been known and seen to hang out at The Tradewinds Cocktail Lounge, 829 North 3rd Street. This restaurant is allegedly owned and operated by FRANK BALISTERIERI, who is a well known shady character in the Milwaukee area. ALDERISIO is also known to hang out at the Down Towner Bar on North 4th and West Wells Streets, and the Roosevelt Hotel, which establishments are also monetarily controlled by FRANK BALISTERIERI. [redacted] further advised that in view of ALDERISIO's interest in the boxing racket he frequents all the boxing and wrestling events which occur at the Milwaukee Arena.

(G) TRAVEL

According to [redacted] ALDERISIO travels continuously between Chicago and Milwaukee. He has been known to have gone to the Los Angeles area and, as has been previously stated, was seen in the company of MARSHALL CAIFANO, a known strong-arm man for the CAPONE gang in the Beverly Wilshire Hotel, Beverly Hills, California [redacted] advised that he had developed information that ALDERISIO has also been in the Las Vegas, Nevada area. He stated that not too much is known about ALDERISIO's traveling activities and, up to the present time, it is not known whether ALDERISIO goes to the Miami area during the winter season.

b6

(H) PERSONAL HABITS AND PECULIARITIES

[redacted] advised that ALDERISIO is a somewhat gruff spoken individual and that he is known as a flashy dresser. His language is profane and vulgar and he is known to be a gambler. He is one who gives the impression of being the "strong arm type" of individual. ALDERISIO is known among the Italian element in both Milwaukee and Chicago and is commonly referred to as "MILWAUKEE PHIL," because he has had financial interests for such a long period of time in the restaurant located on North 5th Street. ALDERISIO does not drive flashy automobiles, it being noted that in 1954 he was driving a Ford car and recently is driving either a 1955 or 1956 Oldsmobile, color and model unknown.

ANTI-RACKETEERING

Rerep SA Laurence J. Giuntoli, 1/7/58, at Milwaukee.

Review of rerep indicates investigation in this matter is incomplete. In this regard your attention is directed to Bulets to New York, dated 11/27/57 and 1/15/58, copies of which were furnished your office. Bulet of 11/27/57 set forth the format of investigative reports in top hoodlum investigations and indicated the type of material desired by the Bureau while Bulet of 1/15/58 set forth a list of deficiencies most noted in reports of this type. These Bulets should be reviewed and closely followed.

To assist in your investigation there are being set forth, under appropriate captions, suggestions and observations based on the review of rerep.

PERSONAL HISTORY AND BACKGROUND

Complete background information should be developed regarding subject's wife Molly Prapopke.

Milwaukee Police Department files reflect subject has a 7th grade education. Verification of subject's educational background is desired.

Rerep fails to reflect the employment and places of residence of subject during his earlier years, most of the information set forth relating to his activities in the 1950's. It is important that the places of employment and residence of the subject during his adult life be determined.

CRIMINAL RECORD

It is observed that Alderisio's identification record under FBI #1021382 reflects a number of arrests for which no disposition is reflected.

WEA:jbf (6)

MAILED 6 FEB 3 1958 FBI

EX-126 RECORDED 92-3141-3

76 FEB 6 1958

MAIL ROOM

Although leads have been set out regarding certain of these arrests, the disposition of all arrests must be ascertained.

Additionally, where possible, subject's attorney for each arrest should be determined and the degree of relationship established.

CRIMINAL ACTIVITIES

According to rerep, the Milwaukee Police Department knows of no criminal activities in which Alderisio is engaged although he is a known associate of Milwaukee and Chicago hoodlums. However, one [redacted] has informed that subject has taken over boxing, and is active in local prostitution and gambling in Milwaukee. b6 b7C

A concentrated effort should be made through confidential informants and other logical sources to develop the extent and degree of control subject exerts in illegal activities in your area. As reflected in rerep, subject has been considered a suspect in several gangland slayings and his possible employment as a "gun" or killer should be carefully explored.

LEGITIMATE ENTERPRISES

It would appear investigation is in order regarding the source of funds utilized by subject to obtain his interest in the Hickory House Restaurant.

Rerep reflects that this business, formerly known as the Tasty Bar-B-Q Shop, from 1952 through 1956, operated at a yearly loss. Subject, therefore, must have some other source of income, either legitimate or illegal. This must be determined.

TRAVEL

Investigation indicates subject travels continuously between Chicago and Milwaukee and, further, trips to California and Las Vegas, Nevada, have been noted.

You should secure appropriate coverage to insure that subject's travel plans, particularly outside his routine Milwaukee and Chicago travel, are known to your office so that, if necessary, appropriate coverage of this travel may be effected.

GENERAL OBSERVATIONS

Although the above suggestions are set out for your guidance in future investigation into this matter, it is not desired that your investigation be limited to these suggestions.

You are reminded that the primary purpose of this program is to develop violations within the Bureau's jurisdiction and your investigation should be directed to accomplish this end, if the subject is indeed engaged in illegal activities which fall within the scope of the Bureau's jurisdiction.

The present legitimate enterprise of subject is as silent partner in the operation of the Hickory House Restaurant in Milwaukee.

Subject's criminal activities are reportedly in gambling and prostitution on a local level in Milwaukee. He is believed to be a "gunman" for the old Capone gang and has been questioned as a suspect in several gangland murders.

Alderisio is said to have close connections with Chicago hoodlums including Tony Accardo (allegedly Capone's successor), Marshal Caifano, and Albert Frabbota.

CAIFANO told the police his reason for being in Beverly Hills was that he was on a "shopping trip." He said he had good connections at the Desert Inn at Las Vegas, and he left Beverly Hills immediately after he was released by the police.

Sergeant [redacted] said he had no further information concerning ALDERISIO's association with CAIFANO or their possible implication in the disappearance of "RUSSIAN LOUIE" STRAUSS. He pointed out, however, that the Chicago Crime Commission report dated October 30, 1953, by VIRGIL PETERSON, director of that Commission, at page 8 of the report, has material relating to STRAUSS.

The indices of the Los Angeles Office were reviewed, and the only information available that has not already been furnished the office of origin or the Chicago Office was a confidential letter from VIRGIL PETERSON, Managing Director, Chicago Crime Commission, to Captain [redacted] Intelligence Division, Los Angeles Police Department, under date of April 5, 1954. Mr. PETERSON stated an undercover representative of the Chicago Crime Commission, on an unnamed date, observed [redacted] ALBERT FRABOTTA, alias [redacted] and PHIL ALDERISIO, alias "MILWAUKEE PHIL" ALDERISIO, [redacted] This occurred about [redacted]

Mr. PETERSON wrote that FRABOTTA and ALDERISIO were involved in the killing of THEODORE ROE, policy king of Chicago, and the disappearance of "RUSSIAN LOUIE" STRAUSS from Las Vegas. PETERSON said both were closely connected with MARSHALL CAIFANO, called a top-rank capone mobster.

An associate of ALDERISIO was listed in the files of the Los Angeles Police Department Intelligence Division as JOHN AMBROSIA born September 17, 1909, at Louisville, Kentucky, whose residence in 1954 was given as 1328 West Grenshaw Street, Chicago. AMBROSIA was described as a merchant engaged in the poultry business in Chicago.

LA 92-172

On August 20, 1953, Lieutenant [redacted] Intelligence Division, Los Angeles Police Department, advised SA [redacted] that the police considered ALBERT FRABOTTA, FELIX ALBERTIO and MARSHALL CAIFANO as suspects in the alleged murder of "RUSSIAN LOUIE" STRAUSS on about April 14, 1953. STRAUSS was supposedly en route from Las Vegas, Nevada, to Palm Springs, California, when he disappeared. The police found a reservation at a Palm Springs hotel in the names of "RUSSIAN LOUIE" STRAUSS, MARSHALL CAIFANO and JACK DRAGNA.

DETAILS:

The title of this case is being marked "Changed" to reflect the true given, middle and surname of subject as obtained from the records of the Bureau of Vital Statistics, Yonkers, New York.

At Yonkers, New York

The following investigation was conducted by SA THOMAS P. LYNCH:

On February 3, 1958, Detective [redacted] Bureau of Criminal Identification, Police Department, Yonkers, New York, advised that the only record on a FELIX ALDERISIO revealed that on December 8, 1930, a person by that name, giving his age as 20, address 133 Beech Street, Yonkers, New York, was arrested on a 3rd degree assault charge. On December 9, 1930, the case was dismissed as no complainant appeared in court. The arrest was caused by a fight between ALDERISIO and one [redacted] and was dismissed when the latter failed to appear to press the charge. Because the offense was a misdemeanor [redacted] said no photos or fingerprints of ALDERISIO were taken.

Detective [redacted] advised that Police Department records failed to reveal any other information or criminal data of [redacted] further advised that the 1939 Yonkers City Directory, the only one available, and the last published, failed to disclose the inclusion of the names of either of the participants in the above assault case. He stated that the directory listed a DOMINICK (Occupation - Shoemaker) and PAULINE ALDERISIO at 18 Stone Street, as well as a [redacted] among others, and a [redacted] among others.

On February 3, 1958, [redacted] Bureau of Vital Statistics, Health Department Building, produced Register #37510, which indicated that FELICE ANTONIO ALDERIZIO was born on April 26, 1912, his parents being DOMENICO and IPPOLITO (MATERESA) ALDERIZIO, who were both born in Italy. The record showed that two other children had been born to the parents previously. The residence was listed as 133 Elm Street, Yonkers.

On February 6, 1958, the telephone directory for Yonkers was checked and listed the following persons named ALDERISIO:

[redacted]

On the same date, Mrs. FELIX ALDERISIO (MARGARET) was interviewed under pretext and stated her husband was born on August 4, 1905, and is a cousin to a FELIX ALDERISIO, whom she believed is a resident of Chicago, Illinois. Mrs. ALDERISIO said that her husband and the Chicago resident are the only person known to her who bear that name. Mrs. ALDERISIO said that the parents of the Chicago man are DOMINICK and PAULINE ALDERISIO, and they have two daughters, in addition to the son named FELIX. She said that one of the daughters is known as [redacted] the name of the other daughter being unknown to her.

Mrs. ALDERISIO continued by stating that DOMINICK and PAULINE ALDERISIO, as well as the two daughters, moved to Chicago, Illinois, about 10 years ago, and although her husband is a cousin to the FELIX ALDERISIO in Chicago, her own family has had very little in common with them over the years. She also advised that her own husband had never had any trouble with the police, and had never been arrested by them.

[redacted] when recontacted on February 6, 1958, advised that the only record on file on the birth of any person named ALDERISIO, prior to 1912, was one showing a delayed filing, [redacted] of one PHILOMENA MARIE ALDERISIO, born to DOMINIC and PAULINE (MATERESA) ALDERISIO, of 133 Elm Street, Yonkers, New York, on an unstated date prior to [redacted] said that her search extended back to 1905, and that prior to 1915, birth records were sketchy, at best.

ALDERISIO, 133 Beach Street, was arraigned from the blotter and apparently released. The name of the police court judge was not shown for the reason that the matter never came to court. According to Detective [redacted] the only other information on the card was that the complainant, JOSEPH GRAZIOSO, lived at 198 Oak Street, Yonkers.

Detective [redacted] examined the name GRAZIOSO under a magnifying glass because of a blot on the ink on the fourth letter of that surname and determined that the word was more correctly spelled with a "Z" than a second "G". Thus, the name of the complainant was, in fact, GRAZIOSO rather than GRAGIOSO.

Detective [redacted] contacted Officer [redacted] the arresting officer, and reported that [redacted] could not recall the incident of the arrest or the principals involved, because of the great lapse of time.

On the same date SAA [redacted] interviewed the following persons with negative results concerning their knowledge of either FELIX ALDERISIO, who was born at 133 Elm Street, and later lived at 133 Beach Street, and/or one JOSEPH GRAZIOSO of 198 Oak Street:

JOSEPH M. GRAZIOSO, 408 East 242nd Street, Bronx, New York, advised on March 31, 1958, that he is 57 years old and that he formerly resided at 198 Oak Street, Yonkers, New York, until about 1933. When asked if he could recall the incident of his being assaulted by one FELIX ALDERISIO in 1930, GRAZIOSO denied that he ever knew anyone named ALDERISIO and stated that his name may have been given by someone else as a cover for their own complaint against ALDERISIO. In explaining this, GRAZIOSO stated that many years ago he was very active in Democratic politics in Yonkers as a ward leader and as a consequence his name was fairly well known in the immediate area where he resided.

Additionally, GRAZIOSO stated that he was a former amateur boxer himself and would probably have little difficulty

It was observed by SAA [redacted] that 198 Oak Street and 133 Beach Street in Yonkers are addresses whose rear yards are almost adjoining on streets which are immediately parallel to another.

In view of the fact that the Milwaukee Division has previously advised [redacted] IS ALLEGED TO BE CARRYING A SHOULDER HOLSTER, [redacted] AND DANGEROUS.

ADMINISTRATIVE

Inasmuch as all logical avenues for confirmation for the possible arrest of the subject in the 1930 assault incident have been utilized, without such confirmation, this matter is being considered RUC. It is believed that should the opportunity arise in the future, Milwaukee should determine, through interview of the subject, if he, in fact, was the subject of the arrest in Yonkers, New York.

One copy of this report is being designated for the Chicago Division inasmuch as a previous report submitted to that office reflects the name of the complainant as GRAGIOSO rather than the correct spelling as GRAZIOSO.

REFERENCE: Report of SAA [redacted] 2/28/58, NY. b6 b7C had in the Village files various records pertaining to the occupancy of Mr. and Mrs. PHILLIP ALDERISIO at 515 Longcommon Road since 1954. He produced the following records from the file:

A form letter to the Village Manager requesting waste collection service signed by Mrs. MOLLY ALDERISIO, 515 Longcommon Road. On the reverse of this letter on which the date August 26, 1954 appears, is a handwritten note signed MOLLY ALDERISIO which indicates that the ALDERISIOs moved to Riverside on the Saturday prior to the date of the note.

An application for a building permit dated April 11, 1957, and signed on both sides, PHIL ALDERISIO, reflects that General Contractor J. POLICHERI, 909 Alcola Avenue, Melrose Park, (FI 3-1759), was to construct a dormer and make plumbing and electrical changes in the kitchen and powder room of the ALDERISIO home. A note dated June 29, 1957, signed Mr. PHIL ALDERISIO, accompanied a check for $11.00 to cover the balance of the building permit fees mentioned above. [redacted] made the above records available and photographic copies were made. These photographs are being submitted to the Milwaukee Division.

[redacted] advised that the ALDERISIOs have not secured a Village automobile license sticker for 1958 as of February 13, 1958. His records reflect that MOLLY ALDERISIO, 515 Longcommon Road, had been issued 1957 Riverside automobile vehicle sticker number B-1227 for a 1955 black Oldsmobile, serial number 558 M 15142, engine number L 484960. This car bore 1957 Illinois license number 1785504.

AT MIAMI, FLORIDA

By communication dated April 17, 1958 the following information was obtained from the Miami Office regarding ETTORE COCO, was. EDDIE COCO, EDWARDO COCO, FBI Number 486097.

On February 1, 1951, EDDIE COCO shot and killed JOHNNIE B. SMITH, Negro car washer, in front of the place of residence of EDDIE COCO. He was then residing with his alleged wife in Apartment 3-B, Normandy Palms Apartments, 6941 Bay Drive, Miami Beach, Florida.

COCO was tried before a jury in State Court at Miami on a charge of second degree murder. On June 13, 1951, he was found guilty and on June 18, 1951, was sentenced to life imprisonment. Shortly thereafter, he was released on a $25,000.00 appeal bond. Later, the Florida State Supreme Court sent the case back for a new trial. COCO was again tried and convicted for second degree murder in State Court at Miami, and on November 21, 1953, was sentenced to life imprisonment. Shortly thereafter, he was again released on $2500.00 appeal bond. During his second trial, he was represented by former Dade County Solicitor ROBERT R. TAYLOR and PAT WHITAKER, well known criminal attorney of Tampa, Florida.

Throughout COCO's second trial, JOE DeCARLO, FBI #286969, and FRANK CARBO, New York City Police Department #95838, sat in the court room. There were widespread rumors throughout Miami that EDDIE COCO and his friends had raised a fund of $250,000.00 to "fix" his conviction.

PERSONAL HISTORY AND BACKGROUND

On August 8, 1958, the Reverend ANTHONY COCO, 411 North Jackson Street was interviewed.

Reverend COCO is pastor of Madonna di Pompeii Catholic Church, 415 North Jackson Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. He advised that he has never been pastor of the Catholic Church of the same name at 1224 Lexington Avenue, Chicago, but he does know that at the present time, the Reverend JOHN RIGIS is the assistant pastor there. Reverend COCO advised that from 1934 through 1938, he was the pastor at San Salisto, 2167 DeKalb Avenue, Chicago, during which time Reverend JOHN REGIS was his assistant. Reverend COCO then was transfered to St. Francis Cabrini Parish where he remained from 1938 to 1953 and was then transfered to Milwaukee.

Reverend COCO advised that the name of FELIX ANTHONY ALDERISIO is unknown to him and he doesnot recall that he ever had him as a probation violator. He does recall that he had several other Italian boys who were placed in his protective custody and who reported to him their employment and activities on a monthly basis. He stated, however, that the name of the Subject is not familiar to him and he does not recall him.

On July 11, 1958, Mr. ROBERT BUNDY, 925 North Fifth Street, Apartment 15 was interviewed.

Mr. BUNDY advised that at the present time, he is sixty-five years of age and has applied for social security. He stated that he has known MOLLY ALDERISIO and her husband for almost twenty years, and that he has the highest regard for MOLLY and referred to her as "the salt of the earth". He stated that he knows little or nothing concerning the Subject and is much more familiar and acquainted with the background of his wife. He stated that MOLLY was an Italian girl and believed to be an orphan. He first became acquainted with her when she was operating a tavern for the Subject in Chicago on Wilson Avenue when the Subject had gone into the Army in early 1941 or 1942, and that he assisted her in the operation of this tavern. He stated that subsequently MOLLY ALDERISIO and he formed a partnership and operated the Tasty-Bar-B-Que Restaurant in Milwaukee, and that he and she ran it until the name was changed several years ago to the Hickory Way. He stated, however, that since the latter restaurant was sold in the spring of this year, he is no longer interested in the business. Mr. BUNDY was very emphatic in stating that he does not know anything concerning the Subject, that he does not want to know anything about him, nor does he want to know anything concerning his associates and his present activites.

ROBERT BUNDY stated that he does know the Subject and his wife, MOLLY, [redacted] He does not know where the Subject and MOLLY were married. BUNDY was asked concerning his knowledge of the Subject's present sources of income and he stated that he did not know and that he would rather not know anything about the Subject's present activities, stating that if he would know, he would be reluctant to give this information because he does not wish to become involved with the Chicago Italian hoodlum element.

CRIMINAL ACTIVITIES

On August 7, 1958, Captain [redacted] Special Squad of the Milwaukee Police Department, advised that neither he nor any members of his squad have been able to develop or uncover any criminal conduct on the part of the Subject or any of his associates in Milwaukee. In fact, Captain [redacted] stated that neither he nor any of the members of his squad have seen the Subject in the Fifth Street area or any other parts of the City of Milwaukee, since the Subject sold his interest in the Hickory Way Restaurant in early April of this year. Captain [redacted] advised that it is possible, although he has no basis for his statement, that the Subject has had "a falling out" with some of the lesser hoodlum individuals in the Milwaukee area. He felt that the Subject, although considered a small hoodlum in the Chicago area, is big enough to be considered a "big wheel" in Milwaukee. Captain [redacted] advised that in the Chicago area the Subject undoubtedly holds a minor position, although it has been alleged that he is the "muscle man" for the syndicate in Chicago. Captain [redacted] stated that in the event the Subject makes an appearance in the Milwaukee area, he or his men will stop him and question him and will notify this office of any pertinent information obtained.

T-1 advised that he has been on the lookout for the Subject in his usual habitats, that is in the cocktail lounges and hotels around the Fifth Street and Fourth and Wells Street area, but that he has not seen him since he sold his restaurant on April 8, 1958.

T-2 advised that in the course of his occupation, he formerly saw the Subject on numerous occasions in the downtown area of Milwaukee, but that since the Subject has sold his restaurant he has not seen him the usual night spots.

He stated that he does not know the present sources of ALDERISIO's income but he has heard rumors that the Patrick Henry Cocktail Lounge, which is located on Wilson Avenue across the street from the "EL" stations, is

On 5/4/60, CG 6343-C* advised that MURRAY HUMPHREYS and FRANK FERRARO, Chicago hoodlums, had a conversation during which HUMPHREYS stated that PHIL ALDERISIO was not spending enough time in Chicago to tend to his duties. HUMPHREYS advised FERRARO to talk to ALDERISIO and as FERRARO later put it "discipline him".

On 5/6/60, [redacted] MURRAY HUMPHREYS [redacted] according to CG 6343-C*. During the conversation which ensued between these two men, [redacted] was overheard to remark that "Milwaukee PHIL" got his start as a doorman [redacted] At that time, ALDERISIO was being paid $5.00 a day. According to [redacted] ALDERISIO "was nothing then". b6 b7C

On 5/11/60, CG 6343-C* advised that MURRAY HUMPHREYS, RALPH PIERCE and FRANK FERRARO had the following conversation:

FERRARO: Yeah. Listen TEETS' outfit is really in an uproar. MOE was telling me. I said, couldn't you get them together? He said, no.

HUMPHREYS: They fighting each other?

FERRARO: Well, there was .... MARSHALL and PHIL ALDERISIO. I told MOE ....

HUMPHREYS: We'll have to call them in.

FERRARO: .... I said to MOE, I said, this happened last week. You should have taken care of that the same day.

HUMPHREYS: .... They have to put the law down there. You can't (obscene) up your own guys. You have to get right in there. Say, what is this? Get together. We don't allow anything like that.

FERRARO: That's right.

HUMPHREYS: .... We'll decide the policy, not you guys.

FERRARO: That's right.

HUMPHREYS: If there's any dispute, you come to us. That's what we're here for.

FERRARO: They almost came to blows.

PIERCE: MARSHALL's right, the story I get.

HUMPHREYS: They called me over one day to talk to that guy.

FERRARO: He's right this time, the way I hear it.

HUMPHREYS: There's only one boss, and that's you guys, and you've got to say, listen, this is it. I don't want to hear .... You guys shake hands and go out of here as friends.

FERRARO: Find out who the wrong guy is, tell him you're wrong, and that's it. Now shake hands.

HUMPHREYS: That's right. We don't want to hear any more of this, and don't want to hear about you being sore at each other. Did you pick up the bust on this kid going out there on the South Side, we told him not to come back without being ....

FERRARO: Yeah.

HUMPHREYS: You just say, this is it, and they can tell by looking at your eyes, no more monkey business, you don't have to be rough. Give them the rules, and that's the way we want it. That was bound to happen, because you see, you get these guys a free hand, they're rooting, then they get out, and they get more, and they think they're big shots.

FERRARO: MARSHALL is going out with this contractor. Boom, he starts to put the bite on him. Now, OBBIE and PHIL ALDERISIO know that MARSHALL goes out with this here guy, so they try to put the muscle on him. See what I mean? The contractor says, what goes with MARSHALL and PHIL? His old man come over and got me, see what I mean.

HUMPHREYS: Yeah, well, that bum, I knew this was going to get out of hand sooner or later, with these guys. They don't know, I remember how it used to be in the old days, with us, when AL used to run us guys all over. We trusted each other, see?

FERRARO: Yeah.

HUMPHREYS: With three or four guys together, you maybe don't respect the clique, so they say, so what, and they go ahead and do it anyhow.

FERRARO: This is all one clique.

HUMPHREYS: I know it is.

FERRARO: I said, geez, MOE, what the hell did you wait so long for?

HUMPHREYS: That's the worse thing he can do. He must demand discipline. You have to tell them that they aren't the musclemen, and if it needs muscle we'll do it, and if we want it done, we'll tell them, and not you. If you didn't like what he did you should have come in to us and say, here ....

FERRARO: I'm gonna find out if he even cleared with TEETS. We've got no whole story.

HUMPHREYS: TEETS turned it in, it got out of control on him.

FERRARO: Must have, sure.

HUMPHREYS: That's happened a lot of times. This where you show your ....

FERRARO: Authority?

HUMPHREYS: Discipline.

FERRARO: Yeah, discipline.

HUMPHREYS: And you should do it in a real strict way, see. In other words, you leave a little fear in them, in case they get out of line.

"TEETS" is SAM BATTAGLIA, a former member of the Chicago Crime Syndicate and "MOE" is SAM GIANCANA, a Chicago top hoodlum. MARSHALL refers to MARSHALL CAIFANO, a former Chicago top hoodlum and member of the Chicago Crime Syndicate.

It would appear from the discussion that a breach had occurred between a faction of the Chicago Crime Syndicate; namely, SAM BATTAGLIA's group. It also appears that CAIFANO, ALDERISIO and "OBBIE" (true name ALBERT FRABOTTA), a known muscleman, were involved in some kind of dissension involving the muscling of an unknown contractor. MURRAY HUMPHREYS' conversation regarding the breach in the Syndicate would appear to establish the fact that he and possibly others are in control of the entire situation in and around the Chicago area and that although not settling the dispute personally, gave instructions as to the course of action to be taken regarding any differences of opinion.

On 5/16/60, CG 6343-C* advised that during a conversation between MURRAY HUMPHREYS and DOMINICK GALIANO, HUMPHREYS stated he had told PHIL (ALDERISIO) to get close to RED DORFMAN. DORFMAN, together with his son ALLEN, were the principal owners of an insurance company serving JIMMY HOFFA's Teamster Union.

On 7/26/60, CG 6343-C* advised that during a conversation between GUS ALEX, ROSS PRIO and MURRAY HUMPHREYS, all Chicago hoodlums, concerning GERRY COVELLI, a convicted Federal prisoner, the name of "Milwaukee PHIL" was brought up as having at one time put up bail for COVELLI. PRIO discounted this information however, and said that "PHIL never liked the guy".

DWS:DAR

On 8/21/59, CG 6343-C* advised that [redacted] leading hoodlum MURRAY HUMPHREYS, was heard to comment: "Yea, but OBBIE should have told PHIL to take care of it". OBBIE would be ALBERT "OBBIE" FRABOTTA, a Chicago hoodlum and close associate of ALDERISIO. The informant was unable to clarify [redacted]

By communication dated April 17, 1958, the following information was obtained from the Miami Office regarding ETTORE COCO, aka EDDIE COCO, EDWARDO COCO, FBI Number 486097:

On February 1, 1951, EDDIE COCO shot and killed JOHNNIE B. SMITH, Negro car washer, in front of the place of residence of EDDIE COCO. He was then residing with his alleged wife in Apartment 3-B, Normandy Palms Apartments, 6941 Bay Drive, Miami Beach, Florida.

COCO was tried before a jury in State Court at Miami on a charge of second degree murder. On June 13, 1951, he was found guilty and on June 18, 1951, was sentenced to life imprisonment. Shortly thereafter, he was released on a $25,000.00 appeal bond. Later, the Florida State Supreme Court sent the case back for a new trial. COCO was again tried and convicted for second degree murder in State Court at Miami, and on November 21, 1953, was sentenced to life imprisonment. Shortly thereafter, he was again released on $2500.00 appeal bond. During his second trial, he was represented by former Dade County Solicitor ROBERT R. TAYLOR and PAT WHITAKER, well known criminal attorney of Tampa, Florida.

Throughout COCO's second trial, JOE DE CARLO, FBI Number 286969, and FRANK CARBO, New York City Police Department Number 95838, sat in the court room. There were widespread rumors throughout Miami that EDDIE COCO and his friends had raised a fund of $250,000.00 to "fix" his conviction.

The Florida Supreme Court on February 25, 1955, unanimously upheld the conviction of COCO for murder and the life sentence imposed. On May 5, 1955, COCO began serving his life sentence in the County Jail at Miami. The Florida State Supreme Court refused to set aside the conviction, and the United States Supreme Court refused to review the case. On May 13, 1955, COCO was committed to the Florida State Prison at Raiford.

LEGITIMATE ENTERPRISES

Lt. [redacted] advised on December 27, 1957, that from outward appearances ALDERISIO is not engaged in anything. However, his wife MOLLY has been the active partner in the operation of the Tasty Bar-B-Q Shop, 725 North 5th Street. The other partner is ROBERT BUNDY. Lt. [redacted] advised that, undoubtedly, ALDERISIO is the motivating power and the "silent partner" in this operation and that the name of ALDERISIO does not appear as a member of the partnership for the purposes of evading responsibility and probably for tax evasion purposes.

On December 30, 1957, SA LAURENCE J. GIUNTOLI checked the Wisconsin State Income Tax returns at the Office of Assessor of Incomes, Room 202, Milwaukee County Court House. The records reflect that from 1952 through 1956 the partnership tax returns showed the business was operating at a loss. The partners always listed were ROBERT BUNDY, 717 North 5th Street, and MOLLY ALDERISIO, 4736 West Adams Street, Chicago, and 515 Long Common Road, Riverside, Illinois.

The following is a brief resume of the tax returns for the years indicated:

On December 27, 1957, Lt. [redacted] advised that their file on ALDERISIO contained the following memorandum dated November 8, 1955,

"Information received that ALDERISIO, who lives in Chicago, comes to Milwaukee several times a week and goes to the White Pub Tavern, 829 North 3rd Street, (now the Tradewinds restaurant and cocktail lounge) and there, in the presence of FRANK BALISTERIERI, he checks the cash register receipts."

On January 16, 1958, Mrs. [redacted] previously mentioned, advised that [redacted] to see the condition of the business.

the restaurant has even changed its name from the Tasty-Bar-B-Q to the Hickory Way Restaurant.

[redacted] Clerk, City of Milwaukee Health Department, advised that the Tasty-Bar-B-Q Restaurant has had a license dating back to May 1, 1946 and that the license listing was always under the name of ROBERT D. BUNDY. She stated that annually a license was obtained by this individual. The records further reflected that on October 1, 1957 one MOLLY ALDERISIO made out an application for a restaurant license and that this restaurant license was issued November 15, 1957. The application for a restaurant license made on October 1, 1957, was for a restaurant to be named Hickory Way, 725 North 5th Street. [redacted] advised that the license contained little or no information other than to reflect the various monthly or bi-monthly inspections made by the City Health Inspector.

On February 13, 1958, SA LAURENCE J. GIUNTOLI arranged to visit the restaurant known as the Hickory Way, at 725 North 5th Street, and was accompanied by [redacted] Inspector for the City of Milwaukee Health Department.

During the above inspection nothing of interest was noted. It was determined, however, that the [redacted] who stated that he resides [redacted] He further stated to the City Health Inspector that the licensee of the restaurant is MOLLY ALDERISIO who resides in Chicago but who also maintains an apartment above the restaurant at 717 North 5th Street. During this tour of inspection, which consisted of checking the main floor and the basement, it was observed that the restaurant has two waitresses, one cook [redacted] [redacted] The restaurant has booths along the walls and tables in the center with a barbecue open oven and pits on the north wall. It was observed during this inspection that the restaurant has telephone number BRoadway 2-9437. [redacted] further advised that the former partner in the restaurant, namely one ROBERT D. BUNDY also resides at 717 North 5th Street and that his telephone number is BRoadway 1-5875.

Chicago T-16 advised SA LAURENCE J. GIUNTOLI on March 4, 1958, of the following information pertaining to the Tasty-Bar-B-Q Restaurant, 725 North 5th Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin: b6 b7C b7D

ROBERT B. BUNDY, an admitted partner, [redacted] In September, 1942, BUNDY bought equipment and started a restaurant at 725 North 5th. For a short time, BUNDY was [redacted] and partnership formed with wife and Mrs. ALDERISIO [redacted]

Prior to [redacted] ROBERT BUNDY, appeared as partner in this business. Recently BUNDY is reported to have another partner, but identity was declined by BUNDY. Other sources stated BUNDY's partner is a resident of Chicago, but unable to identify this person.

CG 92-415

On November 13, 1956, ROBERT B. BUNDY declined to be interviewed on the subject of finances. From observation and other sources, it is estimated that volume would be approximately $4,000.00 Mo; but not able to determine profits. Inventory placed at $300.00. Equipment valued at 2-4 thousand.

Banking relations have not been determined. A local supplier has reported BUNDY owing $3,200.00 due since 1954 and action to secure judgement being taken.

Building being remodeled and business temporarily discontinued. On September 10, 1957, ROBERT BUNDY, partner, declined an interview. Banking relations not determined.

On November 1, 1957, BUNDY contacted and declined to discuss affairs of his business. Stated he is not the owner and declined to give name of owner. Identity of owner not developed from outside sources. Business location has undergone extreme remodeling and new equipment purchased; and equipment allegedly purchased for cash.

Public records fail to reveal any chattel mortgages or conditional sales contracts under name of Tastee-Bar-B-Q or ROBERT BUNDY. Outside sources state present operators not requesting credit and supplies obtained C.O.D. basis. Cost of remodeling are not determined. Owner of business, who has been paying cash for recent purchases, is not readily known in this city. b7D

CG T-16 further advised that under the name of Hickory Way, 725 North 5th Street they have information that

On March 6, 1958, Mr. WALTER DEVEREUX, Assistant Operating Director, Chicago Crime Commission, furnished to SA DENNIS W. SHANAHAN the following information from the Crime Commission Records:

ALDERISIO was a silent partner of ROBERT BUNDY, Tasty-Bar-B-Q, 725 North 5th Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, In 1948 ALDERISIO had connecting apartments number 12 and 15 located at 717 North 5th Street, with ROBERT BUNDY.

A notation dated November 18, 1953, reflected that a source of the Chicago Crime Commission advised that ALDERISIO and ALBERT FRABOTTA were operating the Copa Lounge at 65 East Chicago, and/or 750 North Rush Street.

b6
b7C

A memo dated January 14, 1955, reflected that in 1942 ALDERISIO owned a tavern known as the 1221 Club located at 1221 Wilson Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. The license of this club was in the name [redacted] In 1943, the license was transferred to MOLLIE ALDERISE.

PLACES OF AMUSEMENT AND HANGOUTS FREQUENTED

According to Lt. [redacted] subject ALDERISIO stays close to his restaurant which is presently called The Hickory House, 725 North 5th Street, when he is in Milwaukee. It is further believed that he has a room above this restaurant where he resides. The address of this room is 717 North 5th Street. Lt. [redacted] advised, however, that on numerous occasions subject has been seen at the Belmont Hotel Coffee Shop, North 4th and West Wells Street, which is the rendezvous, especially during the early morning hours, of numerous hoodlms, gamblers and underworld characters of the Milwaukee area. ALDERISIO has also been known and seen to hang out at the Tradewinds Cocktail Lounge, 829 North 3rd Street. This restaurant is allegedly owned and operated by FRANK BALISTERIERI, who is a well known shady character in the Milwaukee area. ALDERISIO is also known to hang out at the Down Towner Bar on North 4th and West Wells Streets, and the Roosevelt Hotel, which establishments are also monetarily controlled by FRANK BALISTERIERI. Lt. [redacted] further advised that in view of ALDERISIO's interest in the boxing racket he frequents all the boxing and wrestling events which occur at the Milwaukee Areaa.

[redacted] NA, Undersheriff, Clark County Sheriff's Office, advised on June 11, 1959, he had received reliable information that subject was in Las Vegas, Nevada, during the golf tournament known as the Tournament of Champions, April 22 through 24, 1959, which is played each year at Wilbur Clark's Desert Inn Hotel Country Club. He stated he was unable to determine where subject was staying in Las Vegas, Nevada, but that subject was possibly in Las Vegas with [redacted] [redacted] Chicago, Illinois. [redacted] advised he has definitely determined that subject uses the name of PHIL GATO and is especially known by that name in Las Vegas.

Chicago T-17 advised SA RALPH R. HILL, JR., that the Black Orchid Club, a Chicago Night Spot, is now being runned by the "outfit" namely, MARSHAL CAIFANO, OBBIE FRABOTTA and PHIL ALDERISIO.

Chicago T-18 advised SA JOSEPH H. SERVEL and SA [redacted] on April 8 and 11, 1960, that PHIL ALDERISIO and OBBIE FRABOTTA and MARSHAL CAIFANO had been frequent patrons of the Tradewinds, a Chicago Night Spot. The informant said that FRABOTTA [redacted]

According to Lt. [redacted] Milwaukee Police Department, ALDERISIO travels continuously between Chicago and Milwaukee. He has been known to have gone to the Los Angeles area and, as has been previously stated, was seen in the company of MARSHAL CAIFANO, a known strong-arm man for the CAPONE gang in the Beverly Wilshire Hotel, Beverly Hills, California. Lt. [redacted] advised that he had developed information that ALDERISIO has also been in the Las Vegas, Nevada area. He stated that not too much is known about ALDERISIO's travelling activities and, up to the present time, it is not known whether ALDERISIO goes to the Miami area during the winter season.

Chicago T-19 advised on February 18, 1960, that in January, 1960, three persons known to the informant as Chicago Hoodlums were observed by the informant at [redacted] The three men the informant stated were JOHN MARSHAL, [redacted] not recalled, and who the informant [redacted] Chicago: PHILLY (LNU), an Italian male, the informant [redacted] and OBBIE, an Italian male [redacted] Chicago, Illinois.

PERSONAL HABITS AND PECULIARITIES

Lt. [redacted] advised that ALDERISIO is a somewhat gruff spoken individual and that he is known as a flashy dresser. His language is profane and vulgar and he is known to be a gambler. He is one who gives the impression of being the "strong arm type" of individual. ALDERISIO is known among the Italian element in both Milwaukee and Chicago and is commonly referred to as "MILWAUKEE PHIL", because he has had financial interests for such a long period of time in the restaurant located on North 5th Street. ALDERISIO does not drive flashy automobiles, it being noted that in 1954 he was driving a Ford car.

ANTI-RACKETEERING

Felix Anthony Alderisio

ReBuairtel dated 2/9/61.

All logical informants have been alerted to furnish information specifically concerning the activities of FELIX "Milwaukee Phil" ALDERISIO which would pertain to his violating any Federal statutes over which this Bureau has jurisdiction. A thorough and intensive investigation will be instituted when information is received reflecting such violations.

In addition to the coverage afforded by CG 6343-C*, ALDERISIO's activities are generally covered in the course of investigations of MARSHALL CAIFANO (Chicago file 92-371), JAMES ALLEGRETTI (Chicago file 92-372), and JOSEPH DIVARCO (Chicago file 92-691). These three cases have been recently reopened under an intensification program. At the present time, evaluating the information developed through investigation, the Chicago Division does not feel that ALDERISIO warrants consideration as a top hoodlum of this office.
